the floor and that all members are at their desks. When everyone is at their desks, we will begin with Final Reading.
I advise you that the Speaker has advised the Chair that the first bill on Final Reading, 621, has been removed from Final Reading this morning. It will not be read so we will start Final Reading with LB 629 this morning. While we are waiting I will have to mention to those who came late, I have introduced Otho Kime but I will introduce Otho Kime again. Senator Kime, will you be recognized the second time so those that came late will see you are here? Otho, you have been introduced for the second time so people know you are here. And while we are waiting, I think it would be well if we express our congratulations to Senator Powers, who happens to be on the phone right now, on his birthday.
So Happy Birthday to you. Now as soon as everybody gets back to their desks, why we will begin with Final Reading.
On behalf of Senators Cope and Kahle, I would like to introduce a friend of theirs, Tom Michels from Kearney.
